Slow and Steady delivers again for Capuano, partners

By Joe Clancy

Fifteen years ago, Gary Capuano saw a filly at Fasig-Tipton Midlantic's December mixed sale and—this being 2002—was drawn to her broodmare sire Cure the Blues ahead of her sire Malibu Moon.

"I used to look for them," he said of mares by the 1980 Laurel Futurity-G1 winner. "Malibu Moon at the time was young and you didn't know much about him, but I remember Cure the Blues running around here when Bernie Bond had him back in the day."

Bred and owned by Diana and Bert Firestone, Cure the Blues won his first five starts as a 2-year-old for Bond—a maiden at Pimlico, two allowances and a stakes at Bowie and then the Futurity. Bond being Bond, he sent the horse back to LeRoy Jolley for the next season and Cure the Blues won just once in five starts, and finished 15th in the Kentucky Derby, as a 3-year-old before being retired.

Capuano always remembered that 2-year-old flash, and in 2002 the trainer spent $14,500 to land the Malibu Moon—Salubria filly from Lewis Wiley's consignment. Named Slow and Steady, she won four races for Capuano and client ZWP Stable. Retired to life as a broodmare, she has rewarded Capuano and ZWP over and over again.

Her six foals are all winners. They include Steady Warrior (by Cherokee's Boy) and Steady N Love (by Not For Love), who won stakes for ZWP and Capuano. Three-year-old filly Lucky in Malibu (by Lookin At Lucky) placed in stakes this year and last. Slow and Steady's first foal, Cappiwino, won his debut by 10¼ lengths and was sold to Godolphin in 2009. Hanky Doodle, claimed away in 2014,

Maryland-breds in demand at Timonium

The Fasig-Tipton Midlantic fall yearling sale Oct. 2 and 3 in Timonium saw Maryland-breds figure prominently among the top prices, accounting for seven of the 15 six-figure yearlings sold.

Of the 152 Maryland-breds offered, 120 sold for $2,927,900, an average of $24,399 and median of $15,000. Maryland-breds were bought back at 21 percent (compared to 29.1 percent overall), and the RNAs included a Union Rags filly at $120,000.

The six-figure Maryland-breds sold (with breeder, consignor, buyer):

$175,000. B.f. Lookin At Lucky—Slow and Steady, by Malibu Moon; ZWP Stable and Non Stop Stable; CandyLand agent XX; Springhouse Farm.

$170,000. Dk.b./br.f. Flatter—Apple Cider, by More Than Ready; Sycamore Hall Thoroughbreds LLC; Northview Stallion Station (David Wade) agent; Alan Burkhard, John Hall agent.

$135,000. Dk.b./br.c. Shanghai Bobby—Lucette, by Dayjur; Marathon Farms; Marshall Silverman agent; Charles Zacney.

$125,000. B.c. Bodemeister—Plum, by Pure Prize; Dark Hollow Farm; Dark Hollow Farm agent X; Cary Frommer.

$125,000. Dk.b./br.c. Malibu Moon—Best Present Ever, by Unusual Heat; CandyLand Farm; CandyLand agent XII; Frank Demarco.

$120,000. B.f. Tizway—Piano Bar, by Carson City; Robert T. Manfuso; Chanceland Farm agent; Hillwood Stable.

$100,000. B.f. Quality Road—Modest Madame, by King Cugat; Larry F. Curtis; Chanceland Farm agent; Eisaman Equine.

First-year Maryland sires were well represented. The top three by average were:

Country Life Farm's Super Ninety Nine, 10 sold for an average of $24,300 and median of $22,500, with the top price a $47,000 filly out of Teruko (by Coronado's Quest) sold by Marshall Silverman for Bayne and Christina Welker and purchased by Dean Purdom.

Northview Stallion Station's Bandbox, sire of nine sold; average $22,556; median $20,000; top price $60,000 for the colt out of McCoughtry (by Purim), sold by Dark Hollow Farm Agent XIII and purchased by Hillwood Stable.

Heritage Stallions' late Tritap, sire of 11 sold; average $12,318, median $11,000; top price $25,000 for the filly out of Perverse (by Distorted Humor), sold by Becky Davis agent, purchased by Eisaman Equine.

The top price for a Maryland-sired yearling was $70,000 for a Maryland-bred son of Friesan Fire out of Lotosblume, by Mr. Sekiguchi. Sold by Chanceland Farm agent, the chestnut was purchased by EQB, agent for Zayat Stable.

Gary Capuano

placed in stakes and recently passed the $200,000 mark in earnings.

"She was a nice filly herself, but she just turned into a fantastic broodmare," said Capuano. "It doesn't matter who you breed her to, they're runners and they win a lot of money."

Slow and Steady's 2016 foal, a filly by Lookin At Lucky, won't make it to Capuano's barn but she contributed in a big way by selling for $175,000 at the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic fall yearling sale.

Bred in Maryland by Capuano's Non Stop Stable and ZWP, she was the sale's highest-priced filly and second-highest price overall on a bid by Kentuckian Gabriel "Spider" Duignan for Springhouse Farm. Her breeders celebrated afterward, but also hated to see her go.

"It was kind of bittersweet but she was a real nice filly and we thought it might be good to cash in a little bit," said Capuano of himself and partners Foard Wilgis and Dave Picarello. "We've still got a couple mares and a couple foals and horses behind there in her family. We figured we'd have a little cash to try to carry some of the others and see what she did."

Foaled at Summer Wind Farm, where the partners keep their mares, the filly grew up quickly and well—incubating some sales talk in a group of breed-to-race guys. Laurie Calhoun of Summer Wind recommended CandyLand as a consignor and the Delaware farm delivered. The filly arrived less than two months before the sale and took a crash course in sales prep from the team.

"She's very smart, smart as a whip," said CandyLand's Mike Palmer after the filly topped the evening session to start the sale Oct. 2. "She just took everything in stride. My only reservation with her was this afternoon. She just started to get real sluggish because she was so popular. I felt bad for her. I just didn't have the cardio in her that I wanted to. But she pulled through and showed great all week really."

Capuano and company put a reserve of $149,000 on the filly, which added some pressure to Palmer's job but otherwise served its purpose. The partners were prepared to keep her in the barn as a racehorse if the price wasn't right.

"I had to hustle a little bit," Palmer said. "I got some money people on her and they saw exactly what I was seeing a month and a half ago. They told me, 'Mike you're right, she is a nice filly.'"

Buyers responded with Duignan landing the prize.

"It was a little stressful," Capuano said. "It got to 145 [thousand] and we weren't going to let her go for less than 150. Then it went 150 and 155 and... We weren't going to give her away, we thought she'd be in that range somewhere and we were happy. She's just a nice filly."

Palmer took a satisfied pause afterward, and paid credit to his clients, his staff, Summer Wind and a special filly.

"It was very exciting, very nerve-wracking because it's the first time I ever sold for them and I owe a lot of credit to them for entrusting me with their filly," Palmer said. "I'm very proud of her for coming through it. She can go anywhere from here."

Back at Summer Wind, Slow and Steady might have allowed herself a smile as she delivered once again. The 16-year-old mare has a weanling by Golden Lad and is in foal to Buffum.

Merryman branches out with new stallion venture at Anchor and Hope in Port Deposit

Looking to expand and contribute to the momentum Maryland is experiencing in the breeding industry, Louis Merryman, formerly a partner in Heritage Stallions in Chesapeake City, shifted his base to Anchor and Hope Farm in Port Deposit, and will stand stallions in 2018. Imagining and Bourbon Courage, who entered stud at Heritage in 2016 and had first foals arrive this year, are moving to Anchor and Hope, which will also stand first-year stallion Holy Boss. A final roster will be announced.

Heritage Stallions will continue in Chesapeake City with partners Dr. Tom Bowman and Dr. Brooke Bowman and a roster that includes Street Magician and Despite the Odds, as well as recently announced Editorial, a half-brother to Uncle Mo owned by a partnership between Climax Stallions and Tom Bowman.

The Heritage partners noted that success created the demand for the change.

Due to "a sharp increase in the number of mares bred and resulting live foals," driven in part by the boost in breeders' awards and a restructuring of the Maryland Fund program, Anchor and Hope and the Bowmans' Roland Farm had experienced an uptick in boarding and foaling. "All partners agreed that being able to focus their full attentions at their respective farms would contribute to the momentum Maryland is currently experiencing," a press release announced.

"We've seen a boom to the Maryland industry that is exciting, and the growth is happening at a steady rate," said Merryman. "After countless discussions it was decided separating into two entities would best serve our clients. There was no viable option for expansion. All of my resources are now devoted to Anchor and Hope as a full service operation. I look forward to continuing to work with the Bowmans to promote Maryland breeding and racing."

"We outgrew the current Heritage property quicker than any of us could have predicted" added Tom Bowman. "We agreed this would ultimately provide the best decision for our clients and our industry."

Anchor and Hope is undergoing renovations to be able to offer foaling, layups and sales preparation services in addition to standing stallions. 🐾

Nineteen Maryland-breds sold in Lexington, Ky., at the Keeneland September yearling sale, Sept. 11-23. The Maryland-breds grossed $2,545,500, for an average of $133,974 and median of $92,000. The overall average for the sale was $120,487, with a median of $57,000.

Top price was Thornmar's Flatter colt out of Argentessque, by Silver Deputy. The half-brother to multiple stakes winner Sonny Inspired, an earner of $483,324, is out of a half-sister to $860,406-earner Aggadan, a three-time stakes winner and Grade 1-placed sprinter, and stakes winner Love You Madly, from the family of Forry Cow How. Agent Ben Glass bid $340,000 for the chestnut colt that sold in the fourth session, Sept. 14, with consignor Brookdale Sales.

Dark Hollow Farm realized $280,000 for the full-brother to 2017 stakes winner O Dionysus. EQB Agent selected the colt, and Justin Zayat signed the ticket for the son of Bodemeister out of Safe Journey. Zayat Stables campaigned classic-placed Bodemeister, whose first crop includes Kentucky Derby winner Always Dreaming. Safe Journey, from the family of Hall of Famer Safely Kept, is also the dam of stakes winner Joy and stakes-placed Combat Diver.

A Scat Daddy colt out of Not For Love's stakes-winning daughter Love's Blush, bred by Sycamore Hall Thoroughbreds and consigned with Hidden Brook, agent, sold to M.V. Magnier for $275,000. He is from the family of Grade 1 winner Tactile and graded stakes-winning Brushing Gloom.

Maryland-bred yearlings surpass Keeneland sale's average and median

The first Maryland-bred through the ring was the colt from agent Hunter Valley Farm, Hip 376 on the second day of the sale. By Uncle Mo out of Kanani (by E Dubai), Bradley Thoroughbreds, agent made the purchase for $270,000. Bred by Country Life Farm and Kanani, the colt sold as a weanling at Keeneland last November for $50,000.

The top-priced filly was bred by Avla Pitts, by first-year sire Cairo Prince out of Rey Lake, by Meadowlake. A half-sister to juvenile stakes-winner Bessie's Boy from the family of Ponzi Scheme, the bay filly was offered by Scott Mallory, Agent III, and purchased by John Servis as agent for $260,000. She initially sold as a yearling in January 2017 at Keeneland for $52,000.

Also selling for $100,000 or more were:

$180,000. Dk.b./br.c. by Tiznow—Mystic Love, by Not For Love; bred by Angie Moore and Tiznow Syndicate; consigned by Hunter Valley Farm, agent; purchased by R.A. Hill Stable.

$170,000. B.f. by Twirling Candy—Hula Skirt, by Dixie Union; Housatonic Stables LLC; Lane's End, agent; de Meric Stables, agent.

$150,000. B.c. by City Zip—Chase the Storm, by Storm Cat; Everest Stables Inc.; Buckland Sales (Zach Madden), agent VII; Hal Hatch, agent I. 🐾

MARYLAND-BRED STAKES WINNERS

Maryland-breds score big on Owners' Day at Delaware Park

The 25th Owners' Day at Delaware Park Sept. 30 was highlighted by six stakes, with four won by Maryland-breds getting their first stakes wins.

Winplaceorshowono

Rickman Racing's Winplaceorshowono scored by 4½ lengths in the $100,000 New Castle, the day's 11th race. The 3-year-old son of former Northview Stallion Station sire Dance With Ravens went off as the 1-2 favorite in the field of six off two wins and two thirds in four starts, all at Delaware Park. In his stakes debut, the Ron Alfano trainee broke slowly in the 6-furlong test for Delaware-certified runners but reeled in the field and cruised home in 1:10.59. His third career win boosted his earnings to $122,400.

Winning rider Alex Cinton said: "I have a lot of confidence in this horse to come from behind. He was very excited in the gate. He was back and forth in the gate and then he missed the break which put us in that position to come from behind. Everything worked out perfectly with the way he responded. I really love this horse. He can go to the front and win and he can come from behind as well."

Bred and owned by Cynthia Rickman, daughter of the late Delaware Park owner William Rickman, Winplaceorshowono is the fifth foal out of unraced Love'sclevertrick, and the second winner. Rickman purchased Love'sclevertrick as a yearling out of the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic fall sale for $35,000. The mare's other winner, the Smarty Jones colt Clever and Smart, won his only start, at Delaware Park, in 2015. The mare hasn't had a foal since Winplaceorshowono, but was bred the past two years to Great Notion.

Enchanted Star

Three Maryland-breds made a field of eight in the $75,000 Small Wonder Stakes for Delaware-certified 2-year-old fillies. And it was a sweep, as Enchanted Star led at every call and held Pikachu Princess safe to win by 3 lengths. Buff's in Love finished third. All three are by stallions who stand under the Northview banner—the winner is from the first crop of El Padrino, who stands at Northview PA; Maryland-based leading Mid-Atlantic second-crop sire Redeemed is the sire of Pikachu Princess; first-year sire Buffum, whose only starter in his first crop is Buff's in Love, also stands in Maryland.

Trained by Gary Capuano for Oak Tree Stable, Enchanted Star shot out of the gate for Jomar Torres, went the first quarter in :22.14 and the half in :45.98 before completing 5½ furlongs in 1:04.16 over a fast main track. The filly was bred by Phyllis Browne out of the Allen's Prospect mare Flirtatious Heart, and was purchased by Capuano at the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic fall yearling sale for $5,000. She raised her career mark to two wins from three starts, for earnings of $78,903.

At the fall sale four years earlier, Capuano purchased the filly's half-brother for $6,000. Trained and owned by Capuano, Prospector's Heart (by Dance With Ravens) was a multiple allowance winner and went on to earn $125,313.

Flirtatious Heart, a three-quarter-sister to $467,686-earner and multiple stakes winner Smolderin Heart, is the dam of seven registered foals—all four of her starters are winners. A Maryland-bred full-brother to Enchanted Star sold was purchased by Capuano for $28,000 three days later at the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic fall yearling sale.

Whereshetoldmetogo

The $75,000 First State Dash, the first 2-year-old stakes for Delaware-certified 2-year-olds on the card, went to Black Cloud Stable's Whereshetoldmetogo.

The first starter, and first winner, for his sire El Padrino when he broke his maiden in his debut in June, Whereshetoldmetogo became the stallion's first stakes winner with a big stretch run in the First State Dash. Slipping through tight quarters along the rail in midstretch, he won by a half-length over Jamaican Don, a Maryland-bred son of Country Life Farm's freshman sire Freedom Child who led every call until the last. Whereshetoldmetogo covered 5½ furlongs in 1:03.83.

Trained by Anthony Pecoraro and ridden by Victor Lebron, Whereshetoldmetogo returned $20 as the fourth choice in the field of six.

Bred by David Wade, Whereshetoldmetogo is out of Undisputed Legend, a winning daughter of Domestic Winplaceorshowono takes the New Castle.

Enchanted Star led a Maryland-bred sweep in Small Wonder for 2-year-old fillies.

Hailey's Flip got her fifth win, but first in stakes, in the Tax Free Shopping Distaff.

Whereshetoldmetogo holds off Jamaican Don to win the First State Dash.

Dispute and half-sister to 2005 Maryland-bred champion 2-year-old filly Celestial Legend and stakes winner Amie's Legend. Undisputed Legend has four foals of racing age, all winners. Whereshetoldmetogo, sold by Wade as a yearling at the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic fall sale for $7,000 to Black Cloud Racing, has two wins from four starts for earnings of $72,000. His yearling Maryland-bred full-brother was offered by Wade at the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic fall sale and sold to Clovis Crane for $26,000.

Hailey's Flip

Laurel Park-based trainer Gary Capuano sent out his second consecutive stakes winner of the day when Daniel Crowley's Hailey's Flip cruised to an easy victory in the $100,000 Tax Free Shopping Distaff.

A 3-year-old daughter of Archarcharch bred by Spendthrift Farm, Hailey's Flip notched a 1¼-length score and returned $3.80 as the favorite in the field of eight while covering 6 furlongs in 1:10.62. It was her fifth win from 11 starts (with two seconds and a third) and boosted her earnings to $209,991.

With regular rider Torres aboard, Hailey's Flip recorded her first stakes win after finishing second twice—in the Small Wonder Stakes at Delaware as a juvenile, and in the Miss Disco Stakes at Laurel behind Crabcakes in August, her start leading up to this win. She won an allowance at Delaware 12 days before the Miss Disco—in four starts at the Stanton oval, she has three wins and a second.

Hailey's Flip is the second winner, and first stakes winner, for her stakes-winning dam Tamberino (by Freud), who was shipped to Maryland to foal at Country Life Farm before being bred back to Spendthrift-owned stallion Freedom Child, who stands at Country Life Farm. 🐾

It's the Journey rolls in Laurel's Challedon

His strong second-half form earned It's the Journey another shot at stakes competition, and R. Larry Johnson's Maryland homebred didn't disappoint in earning a fourth consecutive victory and first in stakes company in the $75,000 Challedon at Laurel Park Sept. 9.

The second choice at 8-5 in a field of six older sprinters, It's the Journey completed the distance in 1:22.86 over a fast main track. Maryland-bred Rockinn On Bye was second, his 17th runner-up finish from 48 career starts.

It's the Journey, a 4-year-old son of Mineshaft, is the latest of a long line of stakes winners, which include Strike the Moon and Street Magician, bred by Johnson descending from Ran's Chick, a Maryland-bred filly by the stallion The Big Boss he paid $2,400 for as a 2-year-old in 1978 at Timonium. Although she never raced, Ran's Chick produced 13 foals for Johnson—all were starters—11 winners. The first of her three stakes performers was Turn to T. J., a daughter of Turn to Reason who recorded wins the New Castle and Mill Race Handicaps. Turn to T. J. is It's the Journey's third dam.

Turn to T. J. produced just two foals before her untimely death in 1992—both were stakes winners. Her son Star Trace (by Star de Naskra), a graded stakes-placed earner of $201,764, was eventually retired by Johnson to stud in the Virginia. The mare's first foal, T. J.'s Turn (by Meadowlake), joined the broodmare band after winning five races, including the Toes Knows Stakes at Laurel, and produced five winners from eight foals, including stakes winner T. J.'s Posse. Her winning daughter Traceable (by Forest Wildcat) is the dam of It's the Journey.

The final of four foals (all winners) for Traceable, It's the Journey was third in the 2015 Maryland Juvenile Futurity in his only other stakes attempt. He now has six wins, three seconds and two thirds from 15 career starts, for $216,393 in earnings.

"Mike's done a great job with him. He was good as a 2-year-old and we thought he was a [distance] horse and we were really wrong about that," Johnson said. "He did this kind of easily today, and he beat a nice horse." 🐾

The Jockey Club Breeding Statistics: Maryland up in 2017

Live foal numbers for 2017 from The Jockey Club show that Maryland stallions had by far the greatest percentage of change among the top-10 states, with a 21.7-percent rise in foal numbers compared to 2016.

Maryland production in 2017 moved the state into sixth in the country (from eighth in 2016), with 500 foals by Maryland stallions reported, up from 411 in 2016. Only Kentucky (1.7 percent) and California (0.3 percent) also showed increases.

"It is important to note that the live foals reported in The Jockey Club breeding statistics are by conception area and do not represent the state in which a foal was born," said Matt Iuliano, executive vice president and executive director, The Jockey Club. "Breeding statistics also are not a representation of a stallion's fertility record."

The total figures nationwide show 1,863 stallions bred 36,045 mares in North America in 2016, according to statistics compiled through Sept. 13, 2017, with the breedings resulting in 21,624 live foals of 2017.

Thirty-seven Maryland stallions covered 929 mares in 2016. Leading the way was Northview Stallion Station's Golden Lad, who bred 104 mares his first year. Three stallions have had at least 50 foals reported to date—Golden Lad (59), Seville (Ger) (54) and Imagining (50).

The Jockey Club estimates that the number of live foals reported so far is approximately 90 percent complete. Ultimately, the 2017 registered foal crop is projected to reach 22,500.

The 2016 breeding statistics are available by stallion name through the Resources—Fact Book link at jockeyclub.com. 🐾
