Hunt Cup time brings nominations, conversations

By Joe Clancy

The Maryland Hunt Cup. The very title of the race stirs thoughts of history, a quest, a prize, a goal. And for the 122nd time, the goal is at hand. The Hunt Cup, the oldest steeplechase in North America, goes to the post at its traditional date the last Saturday in April.

Early nominations brought out 25 potential runners, though the field will no doubt shrink a bit by then. As they've said for generations, Hunt Cup prospects are far easier to find in early March than late April.

Among the group are previous winners Derwins Prospector (2017), Senior Senator (2016) and Raven's Choice (2015) plus Virginia Gold Cup and Pennsylvania Hunt Cup winner Ebanour (Ire) and Hunt Cup specialists Imperial Way, Old Timer, Drift Society (Ire) and other contenders. Race organizers came up with the early nomination schedule a few years ago to spur some attention and conversation, and have succeeded as conversations in barns, bars and office buildings will center on the $100,000 classic until race day April 28.

"That was the whole point, to get the buzz and excitement going," said Shockey Gillet, the Hunt Cup secretary, in mid-March. "People can follow them for the next eight weeks or so. Some you know probably won't run, because people throw names in there and see how they'll do leading up to it."

Gillet paid credit to former Hunt Cup jockey Paddy Neilson for the early nomination idea much like big English and Irish races or American Triple Crown races. The Hunt Cup isn't either of those, but the impact is much the same when it comes to revving up pre-race discussions. Horses can still enter the race without nominating early, but the fee is a bit higher.

"It's exciting and a good thing," said Gillet. "To see so many people continuing to be interested in this race says something. Since we started the process I think it's helped generate interest. Meanwhile, it seems to me that the timber world is in a good spot right now. There's an enthusiastic group that supports timber racing."

Gillet oversees a race that started in 1894, when spectators arrived in horse-drawn carriages.

The modern Hunt Cup has changed, but then again it hasn't. It's still the only race on the card, still without sponsors, still without a grandstand, still without on-site vendors or much commercial activity, still something to savor.

"It's really nice to see that the simplicity of the day is still enjoyed by the younger generations and they come and tailgate and have a very nice time," said Gillet. "There's plenty of interest in that. People enjoy the simple tailgate afternoon and know that's what they're coming for and that's what they like."

Twenty-five Hopefuls

The big list of nominees bodes well for the final field size for the Hunt Cup—run over its traditional course of 22 jumps and 4 miles in Baltimore County's Worthington Valley. The course has been the same since 1922, defined by stone survey markers in the ground and the placement of those formidable fences.

Clerk of the course Bruce Fenwick, who also has two on the nomination list as an owner and trainer, said the third fence was rebuilt for this year (following the 13th last year) and that the 21st (the water jump) was on schedule to be rebuilt before race day.

"The course is excellent, it'll be great," he said. "A lot of snow is good for it, not that we had that much snow but we've had enough moisture. If the race was the first week of April, we'd be in trouble."

Princeton (1903, 1905, 1906) was the first to win three Hunt Cups.

Garry Owen's triple (1901, 1902, 1907) was interrupted by Princeton.

Blockade (1938-40) is the only horse to win in three consecutive years.

Since it's the last, everything comes together nicely."

Fenwick's Hunt Cup hopefuls, Daddy in the Dark and De Chera, were foxhunting, training and getting into form along with all the others on the list. Nobody holds a stronger hand than Maryland trainer Joe Davies, who sent out the Hunt Cup winner in each of the past two years.

Derwins Prospector sprung an upset last year for owners Gerry Brewster and Adair Bonsal Stifel, going from maiden to Hunt Cup hero with a single victory. The win changed things for the now 10-year-old son of Van Nistelrooy.

"He seems a little more robust, we certainly take him more seriously than we did before," said Davies. "Horses that have been around there seem to have a bit of a confidence about them that they didn't have before. Other horses have won the Maryland Hunt Cup and been more impressive or more brilliant, but he jumped carefully and put on a good performance. The slower pace helped him, but he really ran up the stretch."

And nobody's taking away the trophy or $60,000 first-place check.

Skip Crawford's Senior Senator won the 2016 Hunt Cup, but fell at the third fence last year and has been on the comeback trail ever since. The 8-year-old needed an extended break to recover from a neck injury, but seemed to be back to his old self this winter.

"He's been in great form, unseated his rider a few times around here in the morning, which is to be expected," said Davies. "He seems to be the same feisty beast he was, which is important. We'll take it slow and see how he does."

Davies also nominated Vintage Vinnie (Ire), a newcomer for Armata Stable whose English form includes a handicap win over the Grand National course at Aintree last June. The 9-year-old was purchased by Armata Stable and will have to prove he has made the conversion to timber before he tries the Hunt Cup.

"He's a pretty serious racehorse," said Davies. "He's got a big engine and we're excited to have him. Whether he can adapt to timber at his age, we'll see. He's done everything very nicely so far."

Team Davies also includes timber maiden Our Town, who will bid for an upset. Davies said Frenchman Gonzague Cottreau would return to ride Derwins Prospector while Chris Gracie (a Hunt Cup winner in 2003 and 2006) was looking to end his retirement and ride Vintage Vinnie and Eric Poretz would keep the mount on Senior Senator.

Last year's runner-up (and third home in 2016) Drift Society (Ire) returns for Bruton Street-US and Jack Fisher. The 10-year-old has been second in four consecutive starts—all timber stakes—and would be the likely favorite if there were betting on the race. Raven's Choice won the 2015 race via disqualification, but couldn't match that performance in 2016 (when he fell) and skipped the Hunt Cup last year for Ann Jackson and Todd Wyatt. Kinross Farm's Old Timer was in with a big chance last year when he lost jockey McLane Hendriks at the second-last, the tricky water jump.

The full nomination list with owner, trainer: Carrickboy (Ire), Morningstar Farm, Ricky Hendriks; Class Indian, Jeremy Batoff, Willie Dowling; Daddy in the Dark, Bruce Fenwick, Fenwick; De Chera, Bruce Fenwick, Fenwick; Derwins Prospector, Gerry Brewster, Joe Davies; Drift Society (Ire), Bruton Street-U.S., Jack Fisher; Duc de Savoie, Wits End Stable, Willie Dowling; Ebanour (Ire), Irv Naylor, Cyril Murphy; Gas Can Eddie, Jean Class, Billy Meister; Imperial Way, Merriemfield Farm, Elizabeth Voss; Jeffery G., Jason Cole, Cole; Joshua G., Armata Stable, Kathy Neilson; Just Barely, Billy Meister, Meister; Old Timer, Kinross Farm, Richard Valentine; Our Town, Richard Blue Jr./George Tydings/Gerry Brewster, Joe Davies; Prime Prospector, Peter Jay, Todd Wyatt; Raven's Choice, Ann Jackson, Todd Wyatt; Senior Senator, Irvin Crawford, Joe Davies; Serene Harbor, Welcome Here Farm, Stephanie Dowling; Sovereign Fund, Upland Partners, Stephanie Dowling; Tango Rhythm, Lucy Goelet/Charlie Noell; Billy Meister;

Historic Anniversary

Fifty years ago, Mountain Dew tried to make history while bidding for his fourth win in the race only to pull up lame with a tendon injury and instead head off into retirement. At the time, the Maryland-bred was one of seven triple winners of the Hunt Cup along with Jay Trump, Pine Pep, Winton, Blockade, Garry Owen and Princeton. Cancottage (GB) joined the list in 1983, but that's as far as we've gotten.

A look at the three-timers, courtesy of the April 1968 edition of the Maryland Horse:

Princeton: Foaled in 1889, he won the Hunt Cup in 1903, 1905 and 1906 for owners W.J.H. and Sidney Watters. The brothers took turns riding, with Sidney taking the 1905 running. The horse was typically harnessed and driven to the race by the Watters brothers, who purchased Princeton after a flat career of some note ended in 1902. Known as Tom Ward, the horse was owned by "unscrupulous scoundrels" who altered his name and markings to assist their betting strategies. Ultimately, he was banned from the race-track and purchased as a steeplechaser. He raced until 1911, meaning he was 22 when he last ran, never fell and died at age 30.

Garry Owen: One year after Princeton won his third, this foal of 1891 scored a Hunt Cup win at age 16 for owner J.H. O'Donovan and jockey Jervis Spencer Jr. to join the triple-winner club. The three wins came over three courses, at Brooklandwood in 1901, Timonium in 1902 and Thomas Deford's farm in the Green Spring Valley in 1907.

Blockade: It took 33 years, but another triple winner finally came in the form

1916, 1917 and 1918 renewals were run over Mr. G. Bernard Fenwick's property, the course being virtually the same as the 1915 running. Of this course, Stuart Rose states: "The Fenwick farm in 1915 was fenced entirely with wire and it was necessary for the Committee to build panels in order to run the race . . . In 1919 the Committee again found itself up against the problem of 1914: the landowners would not keep the course in grass." So once more the site for the Maryland Hunt Cup was moved.

Winton's three in a row (1942, 1946, 1947) were interrupted by World War II.

Pine Pep carried Mikey Smithwick to victory in 1949, 1950 and 1952.

Jay Trump (1963, 1964, 1966) was undefeated in three Hunt Cup tries.

of Blockade, a son of Man o' War. Bred for flat racing by Isabel Dodge Sloane's Brookmeade Stable, Blockade was sold as a show horse because of a troublesome ankle. Trainer Janon Fisher Jr. opted for timber instead, and Blockade blossomed with Hunt Cup wins in 1938, 1939 and 1940. J. Fred Colwill, later a state steward at the Maryland tracks, did the riding.

Winton: No Hunt Cup horse outdid Winton, who won in 1942, 1946 and 1947 as World War II forced the cancellation of the 1943, 1944 and 1945 races. Winton was bred on the Eastern Shore of Maryland by Helena Raskob and sold to Jervis Spencer Jr. as a hunter prospect. When Spencer died, his nephew Stuart Janney Jr. inherited the son of Belli Cassus. Winton excelled as a hunter, and won 12 of 13 starts over timber.

Pine Pep: Trained by Hall of Famer Burley Cocks and ridden by Hall of Famer Mikey Smithwick, the foal of 1940 won the Hunt Cup in 1949, 1950 and 1952. W.J. Clothier gave Pine Pep to his wife Anita as a birthday present after acquiring the horse from a Pennsylvania farmer as a foxhunter prospect.

Jay Trump: The Maryland-bred raced at lowly Shenandoah and Charles Town on the flat before being purchased by Crompton "Tommy" Smith as a timber prospect. The foal of 1957 became a legend for owner Mary Stephenson, winning the Hunt Cup in 1963, 1964 and 1966. In 1965, the horse won England's famed Grand National at Aintree. Trained by Bobby Fenwick and Mikey Smithwick in the United States (and Fred Winter in England), Jay Trump was ultimately inducted into Thoroughbred racing's Hall of Fame.

Mountain Dew: Bred, owned and trained by Janon Fisher Jr. (of Blockade fame)—and ridden by his son Janon Fisher III—Mountain Dew was a star foxhunter for Fisher's daughter Julie Colhoun before switching to timber racing. The Maryland-bred son of *Hunters Moon IV scored Hunt Cup victories in 1962, 1965 and 1967 and settled for second to Jay Trump in 1963, 1964 and 1966. Injured while leading that 1968 race, Mountain Dew was retired to life as a foxhunter. In eight Hunt Cup starts, he had three wins, three seconds and a third.

Cancottage (GB): English owner/rider Broderick Munro-Wilson brought Cancottage (GB) to the 1979 Hunt Cup and finished a distant fifth after falling and remounting at the 17th fence. Purchased by noted steeplechase owner Joy Valentine, the chestnut turned into a star—helping Joy Slater become the first woman to win the race as a jockey in 1980. They repeated in 1981. After missing 1982, he was ridden to victory by Charlie Fenwick Jr. in 1983.

Since Cancottage, five horses have won the Hunt Cup twice.

Mountain Dew (1962, 1965, 1967) was first or second in six of his eight Hunt Cup starts.

Cancottage (1980, 1981, 1983) helped Joy Slater become the first woman rider to win.

MARYLAND-BRED STAKES WINNERS

Blamed goes wire-to-wire in Island Fashion Stakes

Stamping herself as a high quality 3-year-old filly, Cleber Massey's Blamed made every pole a winning one in Sunland Park's $75,000 Island Fashion Stakes at 1 mile Feb. 25. Under Ken Tohill, the 4-5 favorite sped to an early lead and relaxed while being chased by Kram. The daughter of Blame picked up the pace on the second turn and never looked back. The winner of the El Paso Times Handicap in January roared through the stretch and won by 6½ lengths while geared down.

With the $45,000 earned for her fourth win in five starts, the Sagamore Farm-bred increased her earnings to $117,260. She was purchased privately by her current owner after failing to reach her reserve on a bid of $77,000 at the Keeneland September yearling sale.

She is the fourth named foal out of Salsa Star, a winning daughter of Giant's Causeway raced by Sagamore, and her third winner. Both daughters are stakes performers.

Sagamore still owns and has in training Blamed's 4-year-old half-sister Chubby Star, a stakes-placed daughter of Malibu Moon with two wins, two seconds and a third in 11 starts, and earnings of $118,196.

Salsa Star produced a colt by More Than Ready, now 2, before Sagamore sold the mare for $100,000 at the 2016 Keeneland November breeding stock sale in foal to Super Saver. 🐾

Enchanted Ghost takes to the slop in Wide Country

Mens Grille Racing's Enchanted Ghost swept to the lead on the far turn and pulled clear for her first stakes victory in the $100,000 Wide Country at Laurel Park Feb. 17.

The 3-year-old daughter of Hall of Famer Ghostzapper was content to sit behind leaders Aggregator and Last True Love through a quarter-mile in :23.82 and a half in :47.93, ranged up to take over at the top of the lane and drew off by ¾ lengths while getting 7 furlongs in 1:25.49 over a muddy main track.

It was Enchanted Ghost's third win in her last four starts. The 9-5 betting favorite finished third in her previous outing, the 6-furlong Marshua Stakes Jan. 27 at Laurel in her stakes debut, missing by 1¼ lengths to 2017 Maryland-bred champion 2-year-old filly Limited View and Last True Love.

"I think the distance is going to help her a lot. I look forward to later in the year on the grass and going long. She's got some grass pedigree on her mother's side," said winning trainer Hamilton Smith.

Bred by George Doetsch Jr., Enchanted Ghost is the first foal out of the Grand Slam mare Uniformly Yours. Sold as a broodmare prospect for $100,000 in February 2014, Uniformly Yours had failed to win in six starts, but is a half-sister to stakes winner and stakes producer Sans Souci Island and out of a half-sister to European champion Negligent (Ire) from the family of English classic winner Sky Lantern (Ire).

Enchanted Ghost sold for $75,000 to Men's Grille at the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic yearling sale. In seven starts she has never been worse than third while amassing $139,589.

The second foal out of Uniformly Yours, a filly by More Than Ready, sold at last fall's Keeneland November sale as a weanling for $190,000, with De Meric Stables making the purchase. Uniformly Yours was bred back to champion Honor Code. 🐾

Whereshetoldmetogo returns a winner at Gulfstream Park

Recording his first win since Delaware Park's First State Dash Stakes for juveniles in September, Whereshetoldmetogo rocketed to a 6½-length score in the American Fabius Stakes, one of 13 starter stakes that kicked off Presidents' Day weekend at Gulfstream Park Feb. 17.

Racing exclusively in stakes company since September, the Black Cloud Stable colorbearer trained by Anthony Pecoraro sat behind the early leaders in the 7-furlong American Fabius before moving four wide around the far turn and drawing off. The chestnut son of El Padrino completed the distance in 1:23.90 as the favorite.

The first starter, and first winner, for his sire when he broke his maiden in his debut last June, Whereshetoldmetogo was bred by David Wade out of Undisputed Legend, a winning daughter of Domestic Dispute and half-sister to 2005 Maryland-bred champion 2-year-old filly Celestial Legend and stakes winner Amie's Legend. Undisputed Legend's first four foals are winners. Her fifth, the 2-year-old Maryland-bred full-brother to Whereshetoldmetogo, was sold by Wade at last fall's Fasig-Tipton Midlantic fall sale for $26,000. He resold at the OBS March juvenile sale for $60,000 to Kenneth Fishbein.

Black Cloud Racing paid $7,000 for Whereshetoldmetogo at the 2016 Fasig-Tipton Midlantic yearling sale. A three-time winner, the colt returned March 10 in the Grade 3 Gotham Stakes at Aqueduct and finished fifth. He has earned $141,862 in nine starts. 🐾

MHBA website adds Md-bred entries, results

Maryland-Bred weekly entries and results as well as those for current active Maryland sires may now be found on the MHBA's website marylandthoroughbred.com.

Under the pull-down menu for stallions at the top of the home page is a link for progeny entries and results compiled by Thorough Fax. Listed are all of the day's entries for Maryland-sired runners, the previous day's results, and a statistics button sorts by stallion name to view results by year (back to 2015). This is for active stallions registered in the Maryland Fund Program.

Clicking the Md-Breds menu provides the entries/results link to a week's worth of Maryland-bred runners which can be sorted alphabetically, by breeder and by sire and includes a number of details about each race.

The Maryland Horse Industry Board—a program within the Maryland Department of Agriculture established in 1998 to promote and develop the state's equine industry—awarded $29,983 in grants to 20 organizations and individuals that represent a variety of equine groups and disciplines. Funding for these grants and the board is provided by the Maryland Feed Fund, which collects $6 on every ton of horse feed sold within the state.

"Horses are a critical component of Maryland's agricultural industry. The Maryland Horse Industry Board and the Feed Fund help stimulate growth and opportunity in Maryland's equestrian community without using any government funding," said board chairman Jim Steele. "This self-funded commodity marketing entity is a model of how industry groups can help themselves without relying on taxpayer dollars."

The committee selected this year's projects from 27 applicants. The recipients included projects that provide equine research, horsemanship scholarships, support for therapeutic and rescue programs, restoration of horseback riding trails and help for 4-H and Pony Club projects. A full list of this year's grantees with detailed descriptions is available on the board's website.

Projects are evaluated based on value to the industry, degree of industry promotion, size and scope of activity, financial need, potential for matching funds and overall quality of the written presentation. Grants are capped at $3,000 to support as many groups as possible.

Eligible projects should have a completion date no later than June 30. Grant recipients are required to file a project report with the board detailing how the money was used.

The board has awarded more than $400,000 to more than 300 projects across the state since the Maryland Feed Fund was started in 2002.
