A Lifetime Tribute: Maryland Hall of Fame honors Boniface

By Chris Zang

Longtime horseman Bill Boniface fully supports recent changes to revive the Maryland horseracing industry. He particularly likes a measure that awards a $500,000 bonus to the connections of a Maryland-bred Preakness winner. He would like to see one amendment, however.

"I asked the guy who was working on that bill, 'Can we make it retroactive?'" Boniface recalled with a laugh.

The vintage Boniface barb had a special point, given that he bred, trained and co-owned the last local Preakness hero, Deputed Testamony, in 1983. If the victory remains Boniface's seminal accomplishment, the Maryland State Athletic Hall of Fame has deemed it just one of many.

The MDSAHOFF selected Boniface to receive the John F. Steadman Lifetime Achievement Award, given to a Maryland resident whose lifetime career in sports has brought honor and distinction to the state and its citizenry. The award ceremony will take place Nov. 8 at Martin's West in Baltimore.

For Boniface, the honor bears a special meaning. Steadman, the longtime Baltimore Sun sports columnist, worked for decades with Sun racing editor William Boniface, the trainer's dad.

Anne Litz

"Well, I don't know that I'm worthy of it, but I appreciate it," Boniface said.

The selection committee found worth in a distinguished career that has featured 20 major winners of 10 graded stakes, the Haskell, Manhattan, Ohio Derby and Michigan Derby among them. But for Oliver Twist's obstructed 1995 stretch run, Boniface might have had a second Preakness score.

Thrilled and surprised by the Steadman Award, Boniface typically diffused the praise beyond himself and Bonita Farm, his family-owned operation in Darlington.

"What's significant about this award to me is that they recognized horse racing as a major sport in the state of Maryland," Boniface said. "Because, to me, horse racing is the greatest game played outdoors. There are very few people who can buy a football team or a baseball team, but there are a lot of people who can buy a horse or a part of a horse and have a chance to win a Super Bowl. That's the great part about the game."

No Maryland-bred has won the Preakness in 35 years, Boniface said, because large, mega-funded outfits increasingly outmuscle smaller ones.

"Ten percent of the trainers have 90 percent of the good horses, and they dominate the classics," Boniface said. "I've always said there's a lot of good horsemen and women in Maryland, but I think they're intimidated by trying to go against these heavy-hitting guys. You know, you've got to be in it to win it."

First awarded in 1997, the Steadman has honored one other horse trainer—King T. Leatherbury in 2003. Eight other horse-racing principals have gained induction to the Hall: jockeys Buddy Ensor (1968), Paddy Smithwick ('70), Sam Boulmetis ('74), Joe Aitchison Jr. ('75), Charlie Fenwick ('88), Phil Grove ('94) and Mario Pino (2012) and Thoroughbred titan Native Dancer ('14), the only non-human enshrined.

At 76, Boniface still makes the rounds at 5:30 each morning, for Bonita remains a bustling venture: The 400-acre farm can breed, board, foal, break, train and retire your racehorse. And the 2018 addition of Santa Anita Derby-G1 winner Dortmund (joining Alliance and Kobe's Back) has brought new energy to the stallion ranks.

"You hope that one of them is going to be the next Northern Dancer," Boniface said. "All horsemen live in hope and die in despair, but the hope part is good."

He said he was hopeful, even confident, about Deputed Testamony 35 years ago even after a bad shipping trip led to a poor outing in the Blue Grass Stakes and derailed him from Kentucky Derby contention. Eyeing the Preakness, Boniface brought the horse home—but not to rest.

A week before the Preakness, Boniface ran him in a small stakes in Philadelphia, where he won and "came out of it confident, like a million dollars." Boniface added, "A lot of people said it was unorthodox to run him that close but, hell, the old days we used to run them every three days."

Deputed Testamony lived to 32 and is buried at Bonita.

"He was a very underrated horse—to reporters," Boniface said. "As a 2-year-old, he set a track record in Meadowlands, and reporters said it was because the track was frozen. Then, when he won the Preakness [as part of a 14-1 coupled entry], everybody said he won because the track was muddy. But what a lot of people lose sight of is, he came back a year later in the City of Baltimore Handicap, and he set a track record on the fast track going a mile and a 16th in 1:40%. That record still stands. You know how many times they've run a mile and a 16th at Pimlico in the last 35 years?" Boniface paused, and with a catch in his voice added, "He just was a hell of a horse."

Boniface has been infatuated with Thoroughbreds—"the most magnificent animal on the planet"—most of his life. He went from exercise rider to jockey as a teen and, after four years in the military, from assistant trainer to trainer. "I got the bug and just never left it," he said.

He doesn't understand how the sport—and the animals who star in it—have lost their allure. "It's crazy to me," he said. "Way back in the day, 90 percent of the 16-year-old boys and girls in the country had ridden a horse. Today, 98 percent have driven a car, but maybe only 10 percent have ridden a horse—or even seen one."

Boniface chuckled softly, said his wife, Joan, accuses him of telling too many stories. Then he told one more.

He recalled teaming with friend Jim McKay, the ABC

Wide World of Sports legend, to create the Maryland Million in 1986, which has become the state's second-biggest racing day of the year.

"The second year was a big day for me. I won three races, and it was the first time a trainer had won three $100,000 races in one day," he said. It also was a big day for McKay, who won the Juvenile with homebred Sean's Ferrari, named for McKay's son.

"We went down to the winner's circle, and Jim was speechless, the only time I ever saw him speechless in my life," Boniface said. "Now [Sean's] the head of CBS Sports, but back then Sean was hustling his old man to get him a Ferrari, and I said no, forget the Ferrari, we'll buy this mare, and we'll raise a stakes winner. So we named the horse Sean's Ferrari."

Perhaps Boniface gets his ability to recollect facts from his late father, who covered horse racing from 1937 until his retirement in 1982. Boniface said of his dad and Steadman: "They were both first-class reporters. They didn't take any cheap shots, but yet still told it bold."

Boniface and his dad started the original Bonita Farm in Bel Air with 40 acres. After Deputed Testamony made history, they expanded it to 200 acres.

Now doubled in size, Bonita remains a family operation. Boniface's sons, Kevin and John, remain fixtures of the operation, and daughter Kim trains part-time. Son Billy worked there too before becoming a Harford County administrator.

Construing his life as "a big parlay," Boniface said he'll share the Steadman Award with his family and horse-racing colleagues.

"You know, to me, it hasn't always been about the money I make or the trophies I take," he said softly. "It's really been about the people I've met and the memories I keep."

MHIB opens 2019 grant process

The Maryland Horse Industry Board, a program within the Maryland Department of Agriculture, is accepting grant applications for research, educational and promotional projects that support horses or the equestrian community, or develop new opportunities for the state horse industry. The application deadline is Oct. 5.

Among the organizations eligible for grants are nonprofit organizations, clubs and associations, businesses, licensed farms and stables, government entities, schools and educational institutions. Projects of interest to the Board include (but are not limited to) those that develop new opportunities for the Maryland horse industry.

"The Maryland horse industry brings an additional $1.3 billion dollars to the state economy and impacts more than 21,000 jobs," said Maryland Agriculture Secretary Joe Bartenfelder. "As an important component of Maryland's diverse agriculture sector and overall economy, the grants provided by the Maryland Horse Industry Board and the Maryland Feed Fund ensure that the state's horse industry continues to grow and thrive for years to come. I encourage eligible organizations to fill out a grant application today."

Projects will be evaluated for their value to the industry, degree of industry promotion, size and scope of activity, financial need, potential for matching funds, benefits and quality of the written presentation. Grant requests should not exceed $3,000; the average grant amount is approximately $1,000. In 2018, 20 projects received $30,000 in grant allocations.

Funding is provided by the Maryland Feed Fund, which collects $6 on every ton of horse feed sold in Maryland. Since the fund was established in 2002, the MHIB has awarded over $450,000 in grant monies to more than 320 projects throughout Maryland.

Grant recipients will be announced no later than Jan. 1, 2019. Funding will be available after that date. Projects should be completed by June 30, 2019.

MARYLAND-BRED STAKES WINNERS

O Dionysus sets course record in Cape Henlopen Stakes

Stretching out to 1½ miles for the first time in his 16-start career, O Dionysus battled for the lead the majority of the trip and proved gritty late to win the $75,000 Cape Henlopen Stakes by a head at Delaware Park July 7. He set a course record in the process, getting the distance in 2:25.99 over the firm turf while recording his third career stakes win.

The 4-year-old Bode-meister gelding, owned by Marathon Farms Inc. and trained by Gary Capuano, remained perfect in three starts on the turf, having scored in allowance company at Pimlico in May and Delaware Park in June. Earlier in his career, he captured the Christopher Elser Memorial Stakes at 2 and Miracle Wood Stakes at 3. Four times he finished second in stakes company, most memorably missing by a nose to Irish War Cry in the Marylander Stakes at Laurel to conclude his juvenile season.

Off 10 months after finishing second in the 2017 Federico Tesio Stakes, he returned in February of this year but didn't get back to the winner's circle until May. The Cape Henlopen makes it three wins in his last four starts—the only blemish a fourth-place finish in the off-the-turf Grade 3 Dixie Stakes, run on a sloppy track at Pimlico on Preakness

Day. With a record of six wins, five seconds and a third, he has earnings of $335,099.

O Dionysus was the highest-priced colt sold at the 2015 Fasig-Tipton Midlantic Fall Yearling sales when purchased for $190,000 by Peter Angelos. He is one of three stakes performers for the winning Flatter mare Safe Journey, who has also produced multiple stakes winner and $250,544-earner Joy and stakes-placed $153,080-earner Combat Diver. O Dionysus represents three generations bred by Dark Hollow Farm, descending from David and JoAnn Hayden's foundation mare Safely Home. His second dam, stakes-placed Safe At the Plate, is a half-sister to Breeders' Cup winner, champion sprinter and Hall of Famer Safely Kept and graded stakes winner and sire Partner's Hero.

Safe Journey produced a full brother to O Dionysus in 2016, named Tauber, who sold for $280,000 at the Keeneland September Yearling Sale, and has a yearling colt by Malibu Moon.

Whereshetoldmetogo captures Concern Stakes

Hugging the rail all the way around, Black Cloud Stable's Whereshetoldmetogo collared graded stakes-placed pacesetter Old Time Revival in the final furlong and edged clear to a three-quarter-length win in the $75,000 Concern Stakes at Laurel Park July 7.

Ridden by Jeremy Rose for trainer Anthony Pecoraro, Whereshetoldmetogo was the second choice in the field of five and ran 7 furlongs in 1:22.61 over a fast main track for his second straight win and third career stakes triumph.

"That was a very good performance from a maturing horse," Mark Esposito of Black Cloud Stable said. "It is my first open stakes win, so that's a good thing. I'll have to talk to Anthony about [what's next], see how he comes back out of the race and just point from there."

Black Cloud Racing paid $7,000 for Whereshetoldmetogo at the 2016 Fasig-Tipton Midlantic yearling sale when offered through the Northview Stallion Station consignment. Bred by Northview Stallion Station general manager David Wade, the chestnut colt from the first crop of El Padrino is out of the winning Domestic Dispute mare Undisputed Legend, a half-sister to 2005 Maryland-bred champion 2-year-old filly Celestial Legend and stakes winner Amie's Legend.

The first five foals out of Undisputed Legend are winners, including her current 2-year-old—a Maryland-bred full-brother to Whereshetoldmetogo named Castlewood Terrace. Sold by Wade at last fall's Fasig-Tipton Midlantic fall sale for $26,000 and resold for $60,000 at this year's OBS March 2-year-old sale, Castlewood Terrace won a maiden special weight in his second start at Arlington Park July 13. The mare has a Golden Lad yearling colt and produced a filly by Uncle Lino this past April.

Whereshetoldmetogo now boasts a record of five wins and two seconds from 13 career starts, including victories in the American Fabius Stakes in February at Gulfstream Park and the First State Dash Stakes at Delaware Park last September, for earnings of $218,570.

WHAT IS MHBA'S PAC?

It is a political action committee formed by the Maryland Horse Breeders Association. The PAC solicits voluntary contributions from individuals or corporations to support issues or assist selected candidates for public office in the state of Maryland who are interested in the problems of our industry and are willing to help us solve those problems.

WHY DO WE NEED PAC?

The largest market for horses bred in Maryland is horse racing, an industry which is closely regulated by state government. In addition, while not well understood, horse breeding is an especially important segment of Maryland agriculture. The economic well-being of racing and breeding is very much a function of the political process. It is essential to the health of our industry that we educate our elected official and support those who work with us on issues vital to our interests.

HOW DOES PAC WORK?

The PAC receives voluntary contributions through its treasurer which are then disbursed to candidates or spent supporting issues as selected by a committee headed by the chairperson of the MHBA Legislative Committee. Any administrative expense will be paid by the MHBA. Reports of PAC contributions must be filed with the State Administrative Board of Election Laws and are a matter of public record.

WHAT ARE THE LAWS GOVERNING CAMPAIGN CONTRIBUTIONS?

No corporation or individual may give more than $4,000 to a single candidate or more than $10,000 to all candidates in any given four-year election cycle. Any contribution to the PAC must be included in your $10,000 total for an election.

WHAT IS THE TAX STATUS OF MY CONTRIBUTION?

Contributions to the MHBA PAC are not deductible under state or federal law.
