MHBA 2016 Breeder of the Year: ROBERT T. MANFUSO

Anne Litz

Bob Manfuso has been breeding horses in Maryland for more than four decades, with a lot of success along the way. But it was bay filly Cathryn Sophia who notched his name on an exclusive list, that of Kentucky Oaks breeder, after her Grade 1 victory last year. The achievements of the 3-year-old daughter of Street Boss, named Maryland-bred Horse of the Year, champion

3-year-old filly and champion sprinter, also secured Manfuso his first Maryland Breeder of the Year award.

Manfuso led all breeders of Maryland-bred runners in 2016 by total earnings (also counting those bred with long-time partner Katy Voss) with $1,727,280, of which $1,139,720 was amassed by Cathryn Sophia. The filly became only the third Maryland-bred to earn

$1 million as a 3-year-old, joining Broad Brush and Concern. She was never off the board in seven starts, and the Manfuso-bred runners combined for a 46 percent in-the-money rate, having started 122 times, recording 23 firsts, 20 seconds and 13 thirds.

Other runners to represent Manfuso included stakes-placed Kaitain and Tizzarunner (the latter Maryland-bred champion 2-year-old of 2015).

Manfuso has done just about everything in racing.

He and his brother John "Tommy" Manfuso owned Laurel and Pimlico with Frank De Francis in the 1980s. Bob Manfuso was president of the Maryland HBPA for a time. He's raced and bred dozens of stakes winners, served six terms on the Maryland Horse Breeders Association board of directors. He and Voss own and operate Chanceland Farm in West Friendship.

It all began with his father, John Manfuso Sr., a former national president of the HBPA and also a longtime Maryland owner and breeder. Manfuso told the Maryland Horse in 1988: "Racing is something I've been interested in all my life. My father had horses before I was born, and I grew up hearing about them. My father was active both with the horsemen's group and as a breeder, so I came by it naturally."

The first big success for Manfuso was with the partnership of Fourbros Stable, which included his brother Tommy, and longtime friends, brothers Jeff and George Hu-

The partnership came about when they purchased an unraced 2-year-old filly in 1973 named Crackerfax, on the suggestion of trainer Bernie Bond. Crackerfax became a stakes winner, and her success launched a 20-year adventure for Fourbros Stable that included buying and campaigning another stable star, Shelter Half (purchased as a yearling in 1976 for $14,500). The son of Tentam won six stakes, earned $236,337, and had a successful stud career in Maryland. His name can be found in the pedigree of Cathryn Sophia, as the sire of her third dam, Cruising Haven.

Other Manfuso successes include breeding graded stakes winners Admirallus (a half-brother to Cruising Haven), Royal Haven (Maryland-bred champion older horse of 1997), Wood So (in partnership with Voss) and Belterra, a Kentucky-bred daughter of Unbridled and second dam of Cathryn Sophia.

Since purchasing the nearly 200-acre Howard County property 1987 and creating the breeding and training center Chanceland (a name taken from old tax records when it was known as Chance Land), Manfuso and Voss have foaled, raised and/or trained numerous stakes winners, including half-brothers D C Dancer, winner of the Maryland-bred Million Sprint, and New York-bred millionaire International Star. Approximately a dozen foals are expected at 2017 at Chanceland. 🐾

2016 MHBA Broodmare of the Year: SHEAVE

Anne Litz

With her first foal, Bob Manfuso's Sheave struck gold as the dam of 2016 Maryland-bred Horse of the Year Cathryn Sophia. That was more than enough to earn the title of Maryland Broodmare of the Year.

The unraced daughter of Horse of the Year Mineshaft represents three generations of homebreds descending from a mare Manfuso purchased for $11,500 in 1985. Named Sailing Leader, the daughter of Mr. Leader was 13 at the time, and in foal to Maryland stallion John Alden (the resulting foal, Raspberry Sea, became a modest winner).

Manfuso bred the mare twice to stallions of his choosing—Hail Emperor, a stallion he helped syndicate for owner Frank De Francis, and Shelter Half, whom Manfuso campaigned with his brother Tommy and the Huguely brothers (George and Jeff) in the name of Fourbros Stable. It was the start of a long line of stakes performers.

The Hail Emperor breeding resulted in graded winner Admirallus. The Shelter Half cross produced a dark bay filly later named Cruising Haven.

Although unraced, Cruising Haven was given every opportunity as a broodmare, and hit immediately with her first foal. Bred to Hail Emperor, she produced Royal Haven three months after Admirallus captured the William P. Kyne Handicap-G3 at Bay Meadows in 1992. Royal Haven far surpassed the success of Admirallus, earning $891,501 and winning five stakes over four seasons. He was one of the best sprinters of 1997, winning the Grade 2 Fall Highweight, Grade 3 Gravesend and the Toboggan Handicap at Aqueduct and the Grade 2 A Phenomenon Stakes at Saratoga. Early the next year he won Laurel's General George-G2.

Cruising Haven delivered 13 foals, and of her 10 starters, eight won, with five earning six figures. Manfuso sold the mare in November 2002 at Keeneland for $600,000 in foal to Unbridled's Song. The resulting colt was $2.8 million sales yearling Bond Street, whose full-brother Whistled sold for $1 million a year later.

But the mare's only other stakes performer was Manfuso's Unbridled filly Belterra, born in 1999, and the dam of Sheave.

Bred in Kentucky, Belterra was undefeated at 2, capturing Churchill Downs' Grade 2 Golden Rod Stakes. Never off the board in seven starts, she finished third in the Grade 1 Ashland Stakes and Grade 2 Bonnie Miss at 3, and was third in the Hurricane Bertie in her only start at 4. Retired to the broodmare band, she has produced 10 foals, her best runner the stakes-winning Kentucky-bred Street Sense filly Taketheodds. Belterra has been a Maryland resident since 2014, and produced a Golden Lad colt Feb. 3.

Taketheodds, a granddaughter of Street Cry (Ire), was a yearling when Manfuso sent Sheave to another son of Street Cry, Street Boss. He chose to sell the resulting filly, getting $30,000 for Cathryn Sophia at the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic Fall Yearling sale in 2014.

Sheave has had three foals since Cathryn Sophia, all fillies. Two are by former Maryland sire Bullsbay—her current 3-year-old, the unraced Great Craic, and an unnamed yearling. Her foal of 2015, by Denman (Aus), sold for $190,000 at the 2016 Keeneland September sale. Sheave was bred back to Street Boss for this year and due in early April. 🐾

2016 MHBA Stallion of the Year: GREAT NOTION

The streak has been broken. Great Notion, the speedy son of Elusive Quality who entered stud at Northview Stallion Station in 2005, is the Maryland Stallion of the Year for the first time. In doing so he ends the reign of 13-time honoree Not For Love, with whom he shared the stallion barn for more than a decade at the farm in Chesapeake City.

With nine crops of racing age, 17-year-old Great Notion comes off his best season. His progeny earnings in 2016 exceeded $2 million for the first time, and seven of his 35 winners won stakes. He was Maryland's leading juvenile sire by earnings, counting Maryland Juvenile Filly Championship winner Crabcakes and multiple stakes-placed Anna's Bandit among his five winners.

Great Notion entered stud after a 3-year-old season that included a win in Oaklawn Park's Southwest Stakes and a second in Saratoga's Grade 1 King's Bishop.

Undefeated at 2, he made a dozen starts, finished first or second seven times, five in stakes, and earned $194,608.

His first year he covered 61 mares, resulting in 35 foals. Over the next few years, the numbers dropped—he had 16 foals in his crops of 2008 and 2009—but the quality of his offspring brought increased attention. His crop of 44 foals in 2014 was his largest, and he was bred to 65 mares in 2016.

Great Notion has become well-known as a sire of sprinters, turf horses and precocious runners—of his 19 stakes winners, seven won stakes at 2. His most accomplished runner, Havelock, was one of the top turf sprinters in the country in 2011-13, with five graded stakes wins and earnings of $655,752.

The stakes winners of 2016 included 3-year-old Just Jack, winner of the 6-furlong Howard M. Bender Memorial and twice stakes-placed, including the 1½-mile Maryland Million Classic, while earning $204,853.

Great Notion was represented by stakes winners from four crops: additional 3-year-

olds Great Soul and Jacky's Notion; 4-year-old Eutaw Street; and 5-year-olds Follow the Notion and Phlash Phelps.

Since the Stallion of the Year award was first presented in 1986 (to Windfields Farm's The Minstrel), seven Northview stallions have been honored, accounting for 22 awards. Great Notion joins Not For Love (2002-04; 2006-15), Polish Numbers (1998), Two Punch (1994-95; 1997); Baederwood (1992); Caveat (1991-92) and Smarten (1989).
